

Glen Ellyn Glitters for the Holidays

HOLIDAY WALK

Friday, Nov. 27, 2009

What's happening downtown this year?

10:30 am: The Glen Art Theatre offers free children's holiday-themed movies, beginning on Friday the 27th with The Santa Clause and continuing on Saturday mornings at 10:30 until Christmas: Elf on Nov. 28th, A Christmas Story on Dec. 5, The Polar Express on Dec. 12, and Home Alone on Dec. 19th.

2 to 5 pm: The Glen Ellyn Public Library at 400 Duane St. has a full roster of entertainment to Celebrate the Season including a storyteller, puppeteers, Readers' Theatre, several choirs, crafts and light refreshments for the early birds coming downtown.

5 to 8 pm: Grace Lutheran Church at 493 Forest Avenue will hold their annual Chili Supper, proceeds to benefit the ELCA World Hunger Appeal.

5:30 to 7 pm: Inland Bank is offering a photo with Frosty on the 27th until 7, will also have hot chocolate & cookies that evening, and is the drop-off point for a local toy drive (bring a new, unopened toy) from Nov. 23 through December 3.

6:00 pm: Santa arrives to light the big tree at the corner of Main Street and Crescent Boulevard. Join the crowd in the countdown and to cheer on Santa!

6 to 7:30 pm: Living Creche on view on the front steps of First Presbyterian Church on Main Street at Anthony. Stop inside for cocoa or cider and holiday music.

6:30 to 8 pm: Santa and his helpers will await the children stopping by with their Christmas wishes at the Glen Ellyn Fire Station at Main Street and Pennsylvania Avenue. Santa will be downtown again from 11:30 am to 2:30 pm on Dec. 5th, 12th and 19th.

6:30 to 8:30 pm: The Glen Ellyn Historical Society has free Candlelight Tours at Stacy's Tavern Museum on Main Street at Geneva Road. The Museum Store will also be open, featuring great holiday gifts.

All day & night: You'll find something to please any palate when you choose one of Glen Ellyn's fabulous restaurants for breakfast, lunch, or dinner!
